

Blackboard's New TINY Content Editor

For the toolbar, press ALT+F10 (PC) or ALT+FN+F10 (Mac).

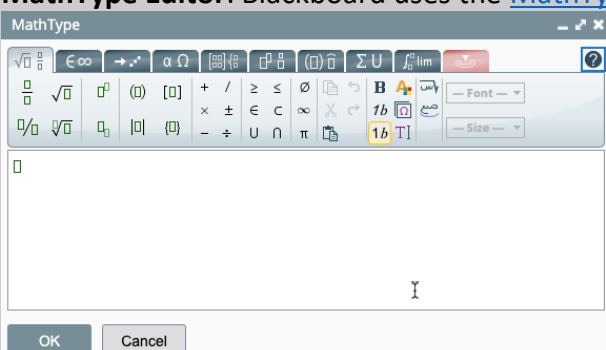

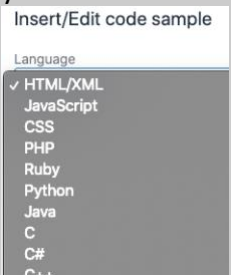

Don't let the name fool you! Blackboard's new text/content editor is anything but TINY. With a substantial retooling, Blackboard has brought its content editing up to "code" with this new editor.

Blackboard is utilizing TinyMCE 5.3.2 for its new content editor. TinyMCE is a flexible rich text editor that instructors will use when adding content to their Blackboard Courses. It looks and feels like current rich text editors that are used across the Internet today.

Some Highlights

Button	What it Does
	Add Content: this takes the place of Blackboard's Mashups  menu in the old editor. Here is where you will find ways to embed things like: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • YouTube Videos • Kaltura Recordings • Dropbox Files • And more
	Accessibility Checker: this button help you check your editor content for accessibility issues.

✓	MathType Editor: Blackboard uses the MathType Editor
😊	Emoticons: Blackboard now has a long list of emojis that you can employ in your content editor.
🗃️	Insert Table: This tool has been greatly improved. Formatting your content just got a whole lot easier.
<>	Source Code Editor: Finally, we have a real HTML editor (with Color Coding). Source code <pre data-bbox="332 829 1071 1008"> 1 <table border="1" style="border-collapse: collapse; width: 100%;"> 2 <tbody> 3 <tr> 4 <td style="width: 50%;">&nbsp;&nbsp;&nbsp;</td> 5 <td style="width: 50%;">&nbsp;&nbsp;&nbsp;</td> 6 </tr> 7 </tbody> 8 </table> </pre>
{ }	Insert/Edit Code Sample: This new feature will allow you to insert code directly into your text editor.

These are some of the highlights that go along with the universal features that you see in other editors. Blackboard's new content editor may be TINY in name, but it is large in its ability to smooth out the rough edges and make your content-editing experience much more efficient.
