2022 - 2023 Dependent Standard Verification

What is this?

We received your 2022-2023 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and found that the application was selected for review process called verification by the U.S. Department of Education. Our Financial Aid Office is required by law to verify information provided on the FAFSA. To verify this information, we require this form to be filled out and submitted to us along with proper 2020 tax/income documents provided by the IRS.

Financial Aid award offers cannot be finalized and aid cannot be paid to student's bill until verification is complete.

Instructions on what to do:

Complete, sign (student and spouse, if applicable) and return this worksheet along with any other required documents, such as IRS Tax Return Transcripts (not 1040 forms), via fax or by mail to the financial aid office at your campus.

Student Name: _____ Cell Phone #: _____ A#: _____

SECTION A - Household Information:

List the people in your household in the table below. Only include the following:

- Yourself, even if you do not live with your parents.
- Your parents living in the household. This includes married, unmarried, biological, adoptive, and step-parents. Any parent who lives in the household with the student is required to provide all information on the FAFSA, regardless of marital status.
- Other children who are dependent on your parents that will be listed on this form – your parent(s) must provide more than half of these children's support from July 1, 2022 through June 30, 2023; OR the child would be required to provide parental information on their FAFSA. Do not list any individuals that your parent(s) pay child support for.
- Other people who currently live with your parents that will be listed on this form – your parent(s) must provide more than half of their support, and will continue to provide more than half of their support from July 1, 2022 through June 30, 2023.

List the names of all members in the household that meet the conditions listed above. Include College name for any member who will be attending college at least half-time and enrolled in a degree or certificate program between July 1, 2022-June 30, 2023. Please attach an extra sheet if you need more space - include student name and a#.
